Rainforest The Musical

Scene 1 - At home with the Toad family

Narrator: Once upon a time in not-so-long-ago there were twin toad brothers and they lived happily with their parents in the village of Marshington in Swampshire.

Mother: My dear boys you have grown up so fast it feels like only yesterday that I was taking you to Lily Pad High School.

Father: Yes, it does feel just like yesterday. I remember sports day in Natterjack Woods. And I won the fathers' hundred metre hop.

Mother: Didn't you push one of the dads over to win darling?

Father: No, no dear, I've told you a thousand times. He just tripped over suddenly!

Andyphibian: Well family, it's time for me to go on my gap year to the rainforest.

Todd: I'm running late for my new job in the Pond Life Café on Webfoot Common in Newtopolis.

Both Twins: We'd better get going.

Andyphibian: I have a flight to catch.

Todd: I have flies to fry.

Narrator: The brothers say goodbye to their parents and both set off, Andyphibian to the rainforest and Todd to the bright lights of Newtopolis and the lily pads of Webfoot Common.

Scene Two - In the Rainforest

Narrator: Andyphibian arrives in the beautiful rainforest and starts to trek through the forest. He suddenly hears the harsh buzz of a chainsaw and sees that the beautiful trees are being chopped down and pushed into the river.

Tree 1: Oh no here comes another toad to chop us down. Quick trees make a run for it. Oh! I forget, we can't.

Tree 2: We have roots that grow into the ground.

Tree 3: We don't have legs and webbed feet like you.

Andyphibian: I'm not going to chop you down. I've come to learn all about your home. Tell me, why are they chopping you down?

Tree 1: You don't know!

Tree 2: Let's tell him.

Tree 3: He could save us.
